

Modern Slavery Statement

Cebtron Motors fully supports the Modern Slavery Act 2015. This statement sets out the steps Cebtron Motors has taken during the previous financial year to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not operating within either its own business or its supply chains.

This statement has been approved by the Board of Directors of Cebtron Motors

Cebtron Motors supports and respects the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights.

Cebtron Motors is committed to making certain that it is not complicit in human rights abuses.

Cebtron Motors respects the rights of workers to join, form or not to join workers organisations including trades unions.

Cebtron Motors does not use forced or compulsory labour. Employment is voluntary.

Cebtron Motors complies with minimum age laws and does not employ child labour.

Cebtron Motors is dedicated to maintaining workplaces that are free from discrimination or harassment based on race, colour, religion, creed, gender, sexual orientation, marital status and pregnancy, age, disability, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law.

Cebtron Motors provides employees with a safe and healthy workplace.

Cebtron Motors is committed to promoting environmental responsibility and encourages the development and application of environmentally friendly technologies.

Cebtron Motors prohibits corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

Cebtron Motors believes that freedom of expression is a fundamental human right.

Cebtron Motors requires all employees and suppliers to adhere to these principles.

Cebtron Motors continues to review its policies and processes in an effort to go beyond basic social and environmental regulations and to ensure the highest standards in its supply chain, as expected by our customers and the companies with which it works.

Where necessary, Cebtron Motors will provide training for staff to ensure that members of the organisation are aware of the policy and adhere to its processes.
